

SIMPLE CEREMONY MARKS WEDDING OF MISS BUCHANAN

Daughter of Brigadier General Becomes the Bride of Walter McKown Jones.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS ATTEND

Rev. Roland Cotton Smith Officiates at Ceremony at the Bride's Home.

The home of Brig. Gen. James A. Buchanan, in Massachusetts avenue, was the scene of a beautiful but quiet wedding at 4 o'clock today when his daughter, Miss Helen Buchanan, became the bride of Walter McKown Jones, of Porto Rico. The house was decorated with palms, ferns and white roses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith in the presence of about thirty-five guests, all relatives or intimate friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a tailored suit of dark blue silk, a large black hat trimmed with black plumes, and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, the gift of the bridegroom. The bride was unmarried.

Mr. Jones, who is a resident of Porto Rico, was best man. A buffet breakfast followed the ceremony. The bride was assisted in receiving by her housekeeper, Miss Mildred Greble, Miss Mildred Stillman, of New York, and Mrs. Frank Andrews, from Fort Ethan Allen. Miss Greble was groomed in dark blue tulle, and Miss Stillman in black lace over black silk. Mrs. Andrews wore a dark blue silk, dotted with white. They carried no flowers.

Later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for a wedding trip. They will sail May 27 for their home in Porto Rico.

Dine at Dover House.

Countess Giszka will entertain at dinner at the Dover House this evening. The party will make the trip into the country by motor and dancing will follow the dinner.

Miss Julia Meyer, who is the guest of Colonel and Mrs. John R. Williams and Mrs. William F. McCombs, expects to leave Washington this week.

Mrs. McCombs will go North shortly to select a summer home on the North Shore for Colonel and Mrs. Williams.

Close Winter Home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sidney Webb and their family will close their residence in Massachusetts avenue next week and will go to their cottage at Easthampton, N. Y., for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hill were here for a party of friends who motored to the Lock Tavern Club for luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. William A. Slater has cards out for a dinner on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Barrett Browning has closed her apartment in the Connecticut and has taken a cottage at Lancaster, Mass., for the summer months.

Mrs. Alexander Stewart and Miss Helen Stewart will entertain at luncheon on Thursday in compliment to Mrs. Robert Lansing.

Mrs. Frederick Hicks will be hostess at luncheon tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Axel Wichfeld, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis at Emergency Hospital, returned to her home in Massachusetts avenue on Saturday, and is now convalescing.

The operating room at Emergency Hospital was endowed by Mrs. Wichfeld in memory of her first husband, the late Clarence Moore, who was lost on the Titanic.

Mrs. Roper at Home.

Mrs. Daniel C. Roper, wife of the Assistant Postmaster General, will be at home informally this afternoon at her summer home, Cottage in the Woods, in compliment to the ladies in Washington from North Carolina.

Her daughter, Mrs. D. R. Coker, of Hartsville, S. C., formerly Miss May Roper, will receive with her. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. John B. Shaw, Miss Edale, and Miss Nancy Fairley, all of North Carolina.

Mrs. Roper will be at home the remaining Mondays in May.

Mrs. Arthur T. Ramsey and Mrs. Henry T. Rainey will entertain at a garden party this afternoon at Mrs. Ramsey's residence, 101 Euclid street.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Miss Agnes Wilson, Mrs. J. Harry Covington, Mrs. Carl Vrooman, Mrs. Cato Sells, Mrs. Kay Pittman, Mrs. T. DeWitt, Mrs. Madge, Mrs. Lemuel Padgett, and Mrs. Fred V. Coville will receive with them.

A number of interesting features have been planned for the afternoon. A platform has been erected at one end of the lovely old garden, where a musical and several vaudeville numbers will be staged. The senior class at Fairmont Seminary, of which Dr. Ramsey is principal, will assist in working after the comfort of the guests, and will wear their caps and gowns.

Mrs. George Barnett will be at home informally this afternoon at the Marine Barracks, when she will be assisted by the graduates of the National Service School in uniform. Mrs. Barnett will also have a number of ladies, wives of officers of the Marine Corps, receiving with her, and the Marine Band will play during the afternoon.

MRS. CLARK'S LYRIC SONG BY HER FRIENDS

Speaker's Wife Given Surprise at Congress Hall to Celebrate Daughter's Arrival.

Mrs. Champ Clark, whose playlet "The Isle of Wishes," a political satire, is nearing completion, was given a pleasant surprise last evening when a number of the residents at Congress Hall sang the "Missouri" lyric from her play.

Mrs. Charles Bennett Smith, wife of Congressman Smith, of Buffalo, N. Y., who harmonized the air, which had been composed by Mrs. Clark, played the first violin in the orchestra which accompanied the soprano solo sung by Mrs. Leonore Sherwood.

The performance took place at the dinner hour at Congress Hall, where the Speaker and Mrs. Clark and other members of the east are stopping.

Arranged at the instance of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Sherwood, the surprise for Mrs. Clark, the performance also was a celebration of the arrival in Washington of Mrs. Clark's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Thompson, of New Orleans.

Gone To Hot Springs.

Eric B. Dahlgren left Washington yesterday for the Virginia Hot Springs, where he will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi P. Morton have left Washington for their country place, at Rhinecliff, N. Y., where Mr. Morton plans to celebrate his ninety-second birthday anniversary tomorrow.

Miss Margaret Randolph Rotch, of Boston, is visiting in Washington for several days.

The Ambassador of Brazil and Mme. Domini da Gama will start on May 22 for New York, making the trip by automobile. After a short time in New York, Mme. da Gama will go to New Jersey for a few days before continuing her journey to Chicago for the Republican convention.

Miss Emily Tuckerman has as her guests at her summer home, in Stockbridge, Mass., Mr. Alfred Tuckerman, of New York.

Mrs. Armstrong Peter has come to New York where she joined her mother, Mrs. B. Granville Wright, at the Plaza.

Patronesses Announced.

MRS. KAUFFMAN IS HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Entertains for Miss Barbara Kauffman, Who Is to Marry Lewis N. Murray.

Mrs. Max Kauffman entertained ten guests at luncheon today in compliment to Miss Barbara Kauffman, whose marriage to Lewis Newton Murray, of Dunkirk, N. Y., will take place Saturday.

This evening Miss May Adams will be hostess at dinner, with Miss Kauffman as honor guest, and a number of other festivities have been arranged in compliment to this charming bride-to-be. On Thursday evening Dr. and Mrs. John Gray Simpson will give a dance at the Chevy Chase Club for her, and that same evening Miss Matel Grandin, who will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding, will entertain the bridal party at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kauffman will give a dinner dance "Alrie" on Friday evening for their daughter, and on Saturday evening, after the ceremony, they will entertain at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club for some of the out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Max Kauffman will give a buffet luncheon, also for the out-of-town guests, on Saturday.

For Hospital Benefit.

Chief Justice and Mrs. White are among those who have subscribed for boxes at the baseball game for the benefit of the free wards of Providence Hospital to be played this year by teams from the Metropolitan, Chevy Chase and National Press Clubs, Saturday, June 4.

The proceeds will be used to extend the porch added recently to the children's ward. Mrs. James F. Barbour, under whose patronage the benefit takes place annually, is selling the boxes. Others who have taken boxes are Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson, Mrs. Richard Townsend, the former Ambassador to Russia and Mrs. George T. Mayne, Mrs. Norman Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Montgomery, Mrs. Thomas E. Bayne, Mr. and Mrs. J. Upshur Moorhead, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Lehr, Dr. and Mrs. James F. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J.
